

Do You Remember?

“I love calling your name. I love to say it, Hannahie. Since they took you away with my people, I fancy chatting with you. You look at me so sweetly with your bright eyes, a gentle sad smile on your lips. I love calling you in my loneliness, asking you in my solitude; do you remember?”

10 a.m. Dharma Talk -

As I write this newsletter, I am reminded that it is the 75th Anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz and Birkenau. Upon my return from Poland ten years ago, where I participated in a bearing witness pilgrimage with Roshi Bernie Glassman, I compiled a series of notes and paintings titled Do You Remember? My vow continues as I share these with you again, and continue to ask - Do you remember?

Please feel free to join us for this dharma talk even if you are unable to attend the rest of the extended practice period.

The Unitarian Church opens their doors to the homeless through the month of January including Saturday, February 1st. Please remember that we are meeting in Room 6.
